

Community Survey 2017 Adult Library Users – responses to the question:

Non-Library Users: Are there materials, services or activities that the library could offer but currently does not?

- No
- No
- Lynda.com database access. My old library down south has access as does the Juneau library.
- Can't think of any
- The one time I have used the library I left early because I need coffee/drink.
- tool loans for Homeowners instead of always buying something you will only use once
- Offer interesting adult education classes. See ideas suggested in #3.
- not that I know of
- Sharing resources w/outlying communities
- music events
- Not that I know of.
- Farming the Sea
- I'd suggest offering more yoga classes. Also, slide presentations would be excellent.
- I have no idea what is offered.
